

Risk Disclosure Statement for CryptoEngine s.r.o

operated through website www.cryptos-engine.com

Introduction

Trading and investing in cryptocurrencies involve significant risk and may not be suitable for all investors. By using our platform, you acknowledge and accept the risks associated with cryptocurrency trading and confirm that you have the financial capacity to bear such risks.

Market Volatility

Cryptocurrencies are highly volatile assets. Prices can fluctuate dramatically within short periods, leading to substantial gains or losses. Market conditions may be unpredictable, and past performance is not indicative of future results.

Liquidity Risks

Some cryptocurrencies may have low liquidity, making it difficult to buy or sell assets at desired prices. Liquidity issues may also arise due to market disruptions, regulatory actions, or changes in investor sentiment.

Regulatory and Legal Risks

Cryptocurrency regulations vary by jurisdiction and are subject to change. Regulatory actions may impact the value, legality, or use of certain cryptocurrencies, potentially affecting trading activities on the platform.

Security Risks

Despite robust security measures, cryptocurrencies remain susceptible to cyber threats, including hacking, phishing, and fraud. Users are responsible for securing their accounts, private keys, and login credentials.

Operational Risks

System failures, technical glitches, or external attacks may impact access to the platform, execution of trades, or withdrawal of funds. While we strive to maintain operational integrity, there is no guarantee of uninterrupted service.

Counterparty Risks

Transactions on our platform involve counterparty risks, including potential default or insolvency of counterparties. Users should exercise caution and conduct due diligence before engaging in transactions.

Taxation and Compliance Risks

Users are responsible for understanding and complying with tax obligations related to cryptocurrency transactions. Tax treatment of cryptocurrencies may vary across jurisdictions and impact overall investment returns.

No Investment Advice

Our platform does not provide financial, investment, or legal advice. Users should conduct their own research and, if necessary, consult professional advisors before making trading decisions.

Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Risks

By using our exchange, you acknowledge that you understand the risks outlined in this statement and accept full responsibility for any financial losses or damages incurred. You further agree that our platform shall not be held liable for any losses resulting from cryptocurrency trading activities.
